DUBLIN RAVAGED BY RIOTERS AND FLAMES

REBELLION GROWING AS BRITISH TROOPS STRIVE IN VAIN

Major-General Townshend Abandons Hope of Aid and Evacuates; Trapped in December

DESTROYS ALL GUNS AND AMMUNITION

Expedition Into Asiatic Turkey Ends Struggle to Maintain Control of Kut-El-Amara

LONDON, April 29.—Major-General Chas. Townshend, commander of the British forces besieged at Kut-El-Amara, Mesopotamia, by Turkish forces since last December has surrendered. This information was contained in a British official statement issued this afternoon.

The official statement added that General Townshend destroyed all his guns and munitions before surrendering.

Major-General Townshend had 10,000 men when he started in command of the expedition into Asiatic Turkey. Since word of his being locked up in Kut-El-Amara was received, several expeditions have been sent to his relief, but none have succeeded even in causing a reduction in the besieging force.

For weeks it has been known General Townshend's force has been virtually without food. Attempts at relief have been made by aeroplane and wheat has been dropped within the fortress, but not in sufficient quantities to afford material assistance.

The following official announcement was made:

"After a resistance protracted for 143 days and conducted with a gallantry and fortitude that will be forever memorable, General Townshend has been compelled by the final exhaustion of his supplies to surrender. Before doing so he destroyed his guns and munitions.

"The force under him consists of 2970 British troops of all ranks and services and some 6000 Indian troops and their followers."

A recent official Turkish communication said that the position of the British at Kut-El-Amara was critical and that they were expecting to receive small supplies of food by airship.

An official statement received yesterday from London showed that a last effort to send supplies to the garrison had failed. It was announced that a ship laden with supplies had been sent up the Tigris, but that it had grounded about four miles east of the city.

Oil Tank Breaks Fear Fire in Harbor

Fear of a disastrous fire has caused an extra guard to be placed near the Southern Pacific wharves. A tank of crude oil this afternoon sprung a leak and covered the waters of the estuary with a black and evil-smelling coating. The oil is regarded as a menace to the buildings lining the estuary and to the vessels in the harbor. No one knows the cause of the leak, which was not discovered until too late to save any of the oil.

CRAZED MAN, IN GUN FIGHT, DIES OF HIS WOUNDS

Posse in Pitched Battle Kills Fairfield Farmer, Who Runs Amuck.

FAIRFIELD, April 29.—Four men had a narrow escape from death in a battle here last night with Henry Leinhard, a dairy hand, demented over marital troubles, who took possession of the Capitol Hotel and held the authorities at bay in a revolver duel until he was finally shot down by Oscar Craven, Fairfield's deputy marshal. Leinhard died this morning as a result of his injuries.

Deputy Sheriff Joseph A. McEnery is suffering a badly powder-burned face. A bullet from the madman's gun passed through the officer's hat when Leinhard attempted to enter the room in which Leinhard had barricaded himself by forcing his way through a window. The shot was fired at so close a range that the powder fire from the muzzle of Leinhard's gun smirched the officer's features, almost blinding him.

ENTERS WITH GUN. Leinhard, a former employee of a dairy near here, arrived at the Capitol Hotel last night. He entered the place with a gun in his hand. He shouted that his wife had recently left Portland, Ore., to join him, but that she had been kidnapped before she could reach him. He vowed vengeance, brandishing his revolver until all the hotel guests had fled.

King in Conference Occasions Speculation

LONDON, April 29.—Considerable gossip was occasioned in political circles over an official announcement that King George journeyed from Windsor to London yesterday to confer with Premier Asquith and Earl Kitchener and immediately returned to Windsor. Whether another cabinet crisis has arisen is not known. It is possible the king's visit to the premier and war minister had to do with the securing of the king's approval of the new military bill. The universal opinion here is that there is no longer any alternative to the introduction of a general conscription bill, with possibly a clause giving another month for a trial of a scheme for the voluntary recruiting of married men.

SNIFF! SNIFF! HAS ACID SMELL! WOMEN IN COURT

Lilac Scents Will Mingle With Carbolic Odors in International Argument.

Lilacs and carbolic acid will mingle their odors and scents in the Police Court when Madame Ephraïme Chaumette, 9412 Sunnyvale street, is examined on a charge of hurling acid through a knothole in a fence at Mrs. Mary Osterberg, whose property adjoins that of the Chaumettes.

Mrs. Osterberg was burned on the right arm, from the elbow to the wrist. She was working among the lilacs close to the fence when she felt a burning sensation on her arm. Looking over the fence, she declares that she saw Madame Chaumette hastening away "with something under her arm."

There has been trouble of long standing between the two families. They quarreled over the property line and there was an old fence between the two lots. The Chaumettes had planted lilacs, and the lilacs, acting after the true manner of all good lilac bushes, sent out runners from the roots, under the fence, and the bushes grew up on the side of the Osterbergs as well.

The Osterbergs are German, and have the German love of flowers.

Sixteen Condemned to Die for Treason

AMSTERDAM, April 29.—A great high treason trial, in which sixteen persons were sentenced to death, has just ended at Sarajevo, Bosnia, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung. Among those condemned to death were Vasil Grapi, a former deputy, and Mattia Popovic, a priest. Sixty-eight persons were sentenced to prison for from one to twenty years. Fifty-five others were acquitted.

There have been no previous reports of arrests for high treason in Bosnia. Sarajevo was the scene of the assassination of Archduke Francis-Ferdinand, heir apparent to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his wife.

U.S. TO ASK PRIVILEGE OF POLICE DUTY

Conference Between Scott and Obregon to Begin Today

Reports From Border Indicate There Will Be No Break

EL PASO, April 29.—Refusal to withdraw the American expedition from Mexico until Francisco Villa is taken and demands that use of railroads and other facilities be granted to the United States forces are expected to be among the proposals of General Hugh Scott, chief of staff, when he meets General Alvaro Obregon, Mexican war minister, in their formal conference today.

Indications were that President Wilson would welcome a temporary peaceful protest over Mexico until the bandits are exterminated and the border raid menace forever removed. This would involve the policing of Northern Mexico by Americans, to which Obregon is opposed.

While preparing for the conference both the American and Carranzista military mobilized to make demonstrations of strength such as the situation may require. However, actual intervention or a break with Mexico is not considered by administration officials here.

GERMAN EFFORTS TO TAKE VERDUN ARE REDOUBLED

French Military Experts Express Opinion Siege Is About Ended.

PARIS, April 29.—After a violent bombardment of French positions near Avocourt on hill No. 304, on the Verdun front west of the Meuse, German troops were massed for an assault. The war office report this afternoon says this attack was prevented by French artillery, which dispersed the German troops.

A vigorous attack was made on French trenches east of Thiaumont farm, but the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses.

Fighting on the east bank of the Meuse spread from the river to Douaumont and Vaux. There was savage battling raging there throughout all yesterday.

VIOLENT BOMBARDMENT.

Following one of the most violent artillery actions of the Verdun campaign, which dropped an incendiary bomb on a German trench and again east of Thiaumont, where they were frequently defeated, said the communiqué. They sprayed the French works with streams of liquid fire as they advanced, but steady showers of shrapnel ripped their ranks to pieces and the survivors were hurled back, leaving many comrades dead and dying on the field.

Another force suddenly emerging from Caliste wood attacked the Douaumont-Vaux line, only to be thrown back without gaining a foot.

On the Meuse west bank French snipers got the range of a hidden machine gun position which was spotted out by aviators and shortly after the first shot was fired the machine gun shell screamed into the magazine, blew up with a terrific explosion. The Germans shelled Avocourt and Esnes all day.

BATTERIES WITHDRAWN.

The battle of Verdun may now be considered as ended, according to the opinion prevailing in French military circles. Not only the recent French official report, but yesterday's German announcement stated that nothing important had developed in the Verdun region. It is nearly two months since the German war office has made such a statement.

Heavy German batteries in consideration of the German withdrawal from before Verdun and sent to a distant point, which, judging from the increasing activity there, probably is the portion of the line held by the British.

The announcement of the decoration of General Pein and other high officers who have taken part in the battle is regarded as an indication that the French authorities share the view that the task of defending Verdun has been brought to an end.

ARTILLERY USED IN EFFORT TO PREVENT DESTRUCTION

Hand-to-Hand Fighting Rages in Streets and Machine Guns Fail to Drive Sinn Feins From Many Points of Vantage in Principal Sections of Ireland's Capital

DUBLIN, Ireland, April 29.—Amid roaring flames which threaten to sweep the city, British troops and Irish rebels are engaged in a furious hand-to-hand struggle. It is estimated that more than 100 persons were killed or missing as a result of the four days' street fighting. Fifteen hundred or so armed men of the Sinn Fein have a hold on Ireland's capital.

After four hours of fighting their rebel flag still flew from a number of central points.

One despatch received from Ireland this afternoon says that Sackville and Grafton streets in Dublin are in flames and that artillery is being used on the houses, the inhabitants having been removed.

From inquiries made among the military authorities at Dublin, the correspondent of the Evening Star concludes that there probably are not more than 1500 or 2000 men and women actually engaged in the rebellion so far as the central part of Dublin is concerned. Among them are quite a number of old men who were closely associated with the Fenian troubles, and some youths of sixteen or seventeen. This is shown, the correspondent says, by the appearance of their prisoners already brought in.

Since Monday some of the chief positions in the city have been in the hands of the rebels. In defending these strongholds against regular troops and Irish Nationalist volunteers, the rebels are fighting with desperation of their lives, which they know may be forfeited because of treason.

Regulars now command all the rebel positions, the fall of which is merely a question of time. The streets of Dublin were deserted today, except for sentries and military guards. Business was at a standstill. Civilians peeped anxiously from behind curtained windows. Field guns were barking, machine guns rattling and rifle fire was pattering, apparently from every quarter at the same time.

When the Associated Press correspondent landed early this morning at the quay near the customs house the ping of snipers' bullets in the vicinity was frequent. Augustine Birrell, the secretary for Ireland, had made the passage from England with the newspaper men. As he stepped ashore he shouted cheerily: "I wish you luck, gentlemen. I don't know what will happen to you, now that you are here."

Soldiers and rebels fired at each other from street corners, wharves, roofs and windows. Sentries with fixed bayonets on loaded rifles, stationed every few yards, shouted their commands to halt. Naval guns joined in and added to the deafening gun fire.

Snipers on the Roofs Shoot Soldiers and Civilians

From the quay the respective positions could be seen. The rebels were holding a square section of territory from the point where Liberty Hall stood before a gunboat destroyed it, as far as Sackville street to St. Stephens green and the Four Courts district and along the southern side of the river to the Butt and O'Connell bridges. They also held isolated positions in a flour mill and a disused distillery opposite the Northall station.

Over all this section there was considerable fighting throughout the day. The distillery was the scene of one of the sharpest little battles of the uprising. The rebels were forced out of the flour mill by bombardment and many of them were seen, covered with flour, making their way to the distillery. Once there they hoisted the rebel flag, which floated from the corner of a square tower.

Soon a naval gun opened fire. The first shot hit the tower and then half a dozen in succession struck the roof and the flag fell. The flag still flew and the rebels replied with rifles and machine guns.

The bombardment ceased after a dozen shots, but was renewed later. It hit after hit was scored, but the flag remained hanging from its pole. One gun hit a water tank just below it and for a time there was a miniature cascade down the walls of the distillery.

The bombardment ceased after a dozen shots, but was renewed later. It hit after hit was scored, but the flag remained hanging from its pole. One gun hit a water tank just below it and for a time there was a miniature cascade down the walls of the distillery.

Late Thursday, as troops began closing in, the revolutionists started numerous fires in the heart of the city. They evidently planned a great conflagration, hoping to escape in the resulting confusion.

British troops rushed toward the fires, being ordered to kill all rebels who attempted to prevent them from extinguishing the flames.

The troops had scarcely begun battling the blaze when fusillades burst forth from the roofs of adjacent buildings. The battle which followed eclipsed anything on the European fronts for picturesque.

Blasts of smoke and flame hid the buildings in rebel hands, rolling away a moment later to disclose groups of men on the steep, upright roofs, firing at soldiers. It was reckless work. The rebels' figures against the background of fire were easy targets. One after another they were picked off, the troops firing from shadows in the streets.

Mexican Paper Dollar Worth 10 Cents in Gold

MEXICO CITY, April 29.—A decree issued by General Carranza announces that Mexico's new issue of paper money will be worth 20 cents in Mexican gold for each paper dollar. This will make the new peso equivalent to 10 cents in American gold. The present paper peso has a value of a little less than 3 cents in American gold.

The new money will be issued May 1 next, but only in payment of government salaries. The old issue will be received in payment of taxes and other governmental obligations and, in accordance with the decree, will be retired immediately.

The new issue totals 500,000,000 pesos and is uncounterfeitable, having been printed by a large American bank note firm. It is estimated that the total of the present paper money in circulation approximates 750,000,000 pesos, many of the bills being counterfeit.

GERMANY'S REPLY TO DIVER NOTE READY TO SEND

Berlin Public Angered by Wilson's Armed Ship Attitude

LONDON, April 29.—The Berliner Tageblatt says that Germany's reply to the latest American note has been completed and will be delivered at the beginning of next week, according to a despatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

BERLIN, April 29.—Publication here of President Wilson's memorandum with regard to armed vessels caused a new flurry of excitement. No official comment was obtainable.

The average Berlin citizen, his first wave of anger over the submarine note having subsided, thought he saw in the memorandum new substantiation of the old charge that America is doing its utmost to help England.

The President's statement that an armed ship should be deemed peaceful until it has been conclusively determined to be contrary brought the following comment from a citizen:

"If I walk down the street with a gun in my pocket, how is President Wilson to know whether my intention is offensive or defensive?"

It is too early to say whether the memorandum will cause a hitch in the negotiations on the submarine issue, which are now in a satisfactory state. Probably this will be known after Ambassador Gerard returns from his conference with Kaiser Wilhelm, which begins today.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Marked relaxation of tension over the German-American situation was manifest in Washington today. This was attributed to knowledge that the German reply to the American submarine demands had been completed and that the Kaiser was discussing continued friendly relations with Ambassador Gerard.

It was expected that the reply of Germany would be accompanied by a personal expression from German officials of a strong desire that no breach exist in the friendly intercourse between the nations. The reply will probably be in the President's hands by mid-week or sooner. Officials are voicing many conjectures as to how far the Kaiser had gone to meet Wilson's demands. Mere expressions of regret and a wish for continued friendship, if not complete compliance with the demands, will not save the situation, it was made clear.

German Papers Assail Gerard

LONDON, April 29.—The Kiel Neueste Nachrichten, the organ of Prince Henry of Prussia and the extreme submarine party in Germany, 1 next, but only in payment of government salaries. The old issue will be received in payment of taxes and other governmental obligations and, in accordance with the decree, will be retired immediately.

The attack is founded upon a story circulated by an obscure Berlin paper published by the German League of Truth, which professes to work for the preservation of friendship between Germany and America. According to the story, Gerard upbraided the editors of the paper for various attacks upon him.

Eye-Witness Describes How Riot Started

LONDON, April 29.—The rioting in Dublin is described as being directed by a combination of members of the Sinn Fein Society and followers of James Larkin, head of the transport workers' union and widely known as a strike leader.

There has been the same violence in the city as marked the big street car strike in 1913, which was headed by Larkin, but supplemented by the use of an armed force with military pretensions and the seizure of strategic points designed to give the disturbance the aspect of a revolution.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, in a proclamation today, calls the movement "insurrectionary" and declares that it is due to foreign prompting. It is, he says, "small."

He adds that "these measures are being taken to suppress it."

The following graphic description of the riot in Dublin was given by an eye-witness who reached England from Dublin last night:

"The first incident of the outbreak was a sudden firing of musketry in St. Stephen's Green, about mid-day Monday, which startled the populace. The streets speedily filled with persons rushing out to see what had happened."

"Soon more shots were heard on Sackville street. Soldiers and members of the Royal Irish Constabulary were being fired at from windows and houses. Much glass was being broken by the shots."

"I was inside the postoffice took possession of it and allowed their comrades to march in. There was no military or civil guard to over- come them. Most of the employees of (Continued on Page 2, Cols. 2-3)

NATIONAL POLITICAL NEWS STATE

REGULAR REPUBLICANS FOR PARTY HARMONY

Members of Ticket Evince Strong Sentiment for Justice Hughes

The candidates for delegates to the Republican national convention selected by the state convention in San Francisco on March 4 are for harmony between the Republicans and Progressives and they are in favor of the Republican convention nominating a forward-looking progressive Republican of the type of Justice Charles E. Hughes.

The regular Republican candidates for delegates have gone on record as to these two points in statements to the TRIBUNE.

A few days ago this paper addressed to each candidate two questions:

First—Are you in favor of the Republicans and Progressives uniting at Chicago in support of a single candidate?

Second—Would Justice Hughes be acceptable?

Information on these points was desired because of the charges emanating from opponents of the ticket that the regular Republican candidates were opposed to harmony and were so-called "reactionaries" opposed to a progressive Republican for the presidential nomination or the selection of a candidate whom the Progressives could support.

ALL FOR HARMONY.

The replies to these questions show that the ticket is unanimously in favor of harmony. Nineteen answered with a positive "Yes." Replies have not been received from five of the candidates at this writing, while two omitted to give a direct answer.

Replies to the second question showed no opposition to Mr. Hughes. Eleven candidates gave a direct "Yes" on the point of his acceptability. Eleven consider that the instructions of the state convention to go unpledged and do what is best for the party and nation is sufficient excuse for evading the question. Four did not reply to this question.

Following is an analysis of the individual replies to each question:

THE FIRST QUESTION: "Are you in favor of the Republicans and Progressives uniting at Chicago in support of a single candidate?"

The answers:

WALTER BORDWELL—Yes.

MRS. OLIVE C. COLE—No response.

MRS. ABBIE E. KREBS—No response.

J. O. HAYES—Yes.

AMIEL HOCHHEIMER—Yes.

P. I. LANCASTER—Did not answer question.

LUKE McDONALD—I am in favor of harmony.

CHARLES E. CLINCH—Yes, most assuredly.

RICHARD R. VEALE—Yes.

FRANK A. CRESSEY JR.—Yes.

J. E. GIBSON—Yes.

WILLIAM H. CROCKER—I feel that it is not necessary for any of us to say that we are in favor of the Republicans and Progressives uniting at Chicago in support of a single candidate, for the reason that I do not believe (and mind you this is only an expression of individual opinion) that the Progressive party will be in existence after the Republican candidates shall have been nominated. I believe the Progressives will voluntarily return to the Republican party this year without regard to whom the Republicans may nominate. I believe the Republicans will nominate a candidate acceptable to all forms and present members of the Republican party.

W. S. CLAYTON—Yes.

WILLIAM C. MUSHET—I adhere to design adopted at state convention of sending California delegation unpledged and free to act for the best interests of the national party.

EUGENE W. BRITT—Yes.

JOHN G. MOTT—Yes.

CHARLES C. CHAPMAN—Yes.

L. L. LOSTUTTER—Yes.

JOSEPH E. CARLSTON—Yes.

J. C. BERENDSEN—Yes.

ALEXANDER RUSSELL—Yes.

FRANCIS V. KEESLING—Yes.

PETER J. CROSBY—Yes.

JOHN S. AKERMAN—No response.

EPHRAIM LIGHT—No response.

HUGHES UNOPPOSED.

The second question: "Would Justice Hughes be acceptable?"

The answers:

WALTER BORDWELL—I adhere to design adopted at state convention of sending California delegation unpledged and free to act for the best interests of the national party. I believe it is too late now to express preference, even if convention pledge could be disregarded.

EUGENE W. BRITT—The same.

JOHN G. MOTT—The same.

CHARLES C. CHAPMAN—The same.

L. L. LOSTUTTER—The same.

WILLIAM C. MUSHET—I adhere to design adopted at state convention of sending California delegation unpledged and free to act for the best interests of the national party.

J. O. HAYES—Yes.

MRS. OLIVE C. COLE—No response.

AMIEL HOCHHEIMER—Yes.

P. I. LANCASTER—Justice Hughes will, in my judgment, make an ideal Republican candidate. I will be much pleased to see him nominated.

LUKE McDONALD—Mr. Justice Hughes is my choice for the nomination.

CHARLES E. CLINCH—Mr. Justice Hughes would be acceptable to me and personally I would be glad to see him nominated.

RICHARD R. VEALE—Justice Hughes would be acceptable and I believe could be elected. I am in favor of any forward-looking Republican and I believe, then, that California's Republican vote would be cast for that candidate.

FRANK A. CRESSEY JR.—Regarding Justice Hughes, I have not formed an opinion at this time.

J. E. GIBSON—Yes, Mr. Hughes would be acceptable and so would Mr. Roosevelt, if the delegates assembled believe he is the man to bring harmony.

WILLIAM H. CROCKER—Our entire delegation will go to Chicago unpledged, unaffiliated and with open minds, prepared to accept the nominee of the party.

W. S. CLAYTON—I will state that I do not consider that Justice Hughes would be as good a President as one who had more diversified experience.

ALBERT E. CASTLE—I am going to Chicago with an open mind and determined to vote as best will serve the party and the nation.

JOSEPH E. CARLSTON—Yes, and there are other well-known Republicans just as acceptable.

ALEXANDER RUSSELL—I am going to the national convention with an open mind and prepared to participate in such action as will be to the best interest of the national party.

J. C. BERENDSEN—Yes, since entering this campaign I have advocated Mr. Justice Hughes as a desirable candidate.

FRANCIS V. KEESLING—There are a number of distinguished Republicans who are acceptable as leaders of the party and Mr. Justice Hughes is one of them.

PETER J. CROSBY—Mr. Hughes would be acceptable and there are other well-known leaders, any one of whom would also be acceptable as a Republican presidential candidate.

MRS. ABBIE E. KREBS—No response.

JOHN S. AKERMAN—No response.

EPHRAIM LIGHT—No response.

Philippine Bill May Be Defeated by Ruse

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Democratic and Republican leaders in the House have decided to bring the fight over the Philippine bill to a head Monday. They agreed that a special rule should be submitted then providing that the measure, now in such a parliamentary status that consideration otherwise would be impossible for many weeks, be taken up for debate and amended and finally voted on before adjournment.

Even champions of the measure concede that there is little hope of passing it in the form it came from the Senate, as has been requested by President Wilson. Some leaders think its opponents even may defeat the special rule, thus preventing it from coming up at all in the near future. The Republicans are almost solidly opposed to it, and the twenty-eight Democrats who refused to be bound by last night's caucus endorsement expect others of their party not present at the caucus to add more to enough negative votes.

Democratic opposition centers largely about the Clarke amendment, adopted in the Senate after a sharp fight, under which the islands would become independent after four years.

BALLOT AS DEVISED IS CONFUSING ONE

Little Regard Shown to Convenience of Voters; Last 26 Regular

Perhaps never before in the history of American elections has a ballot been devised with less regard to the convenience of voters and indifference to getting the true intention of the voters on the ballot, than the Republican ballot in the Presidential preference primary next Tuesday. There are two tickets in the no preference column. One was devised by individuals to serve interests entirely outside the Republican party; the other was the outcome of an enthusiastic convention of representatives of the Republican party. In accordance with the stupid provisions of the primary law, the names of the two tickets of delegates must be suspended one after the other in the same column. As the ballot has been printed, no space has been left even to indicate to the voters where one ticket ends and the other begins.

If a voter puts his cross opposite more than twenty-six names his ballot will be invalidated. In order to assist voters in marking their ballots correctly, we print below a sample of ballot. The TRIBUNE is supporting the Regular Republican convention ticket because it is the only ticket legally selected and representative of the party. We urge all Republicans to vote for that ticket. It is made up of the last twenty-six names on the ticket, printed below in black face type. Cut out this form, take it to the polls next Tuesday and mark your formal ballot accordingly.

Crosby Will Address Republicans in South

LOS ANGELES, April 29.—Republicans of southern California will wind up their campaign for delegates to the national convention by a series of meetings here tonight. Ralph D. Coleman, former congressman from Ohio, and Peter B. Crosby, one of the northern delegates, will be the principal speakers.

Coffee Houses Are to Be Investigated

Investigation of the conditions in Greek coffee houses, especially with regard to the conduct of proprietors of the places with regard to girls employed as waitresses, has been ordered as a result of the disclosures made last night by Josephine Hayes, after she had been arrested for drunkenness.

Miss Hayes drove an automobile into a glass store window at Seventh and Market streets last night while she was intoxicated. The auto was a jitney was belonging to Jack Zurich. An investigation is being made concerning how the girl happened to be in possession of the jitney, and Zurich's license may be revoked.

Charges of immorality implicating proprietors, patrons and girl waitresses employed in the Greek coffee houses were made by Miss Hayes after her arrest and Captain Thorwald Brown has ordered a thorough investigation to be made.

Breaks Record in Tire Changing Race

Walter Atkin, of the Norman Pearl Company, last night broke the record in the tire-changing contest that was a feature of "Automobile Day," held at the Motor Power Show in honor of visiting automobile dealers from all parts of the state. The contest was held last night, ten contestants being entered in the affair.

Atkin won the contest in the time of 4 minutes and 10 seconds, clipping sixteen seconds off the old record. Eugene Soto, of the Downtown Garage, was second in the contest and Stanley Robinson, of the Ocean-Hunter Company, third. George Cerrell of the Borg Auto Supply Company was fourth.

COUNTY PREPARES FACTORY EXHIBIT

Manufacturers to Show Industries at Chico; Booster Special Planned.

Alameda county and the Chamber of Commerce will combine their forces in the county and factory exhibit to be one of the features of the coming exposition at Chico. This was announced today when Fred Parsons, county factory expert, and the manufacturers and new industries committee of the chamber announced the details of the exhibit and plans for one of the most important trade excursions ever held in California.

Alameda county business men and manufacturers will journey to Chico in a special train on May 27, stopping en route at various towns on the line, where they will be received by chambers of commerce and will tell of Oakland's trade facilities and the factories of the county.

May 27 will be officially known as Oakland Chamber of Commerce and Alameda county day at the fair. The details of the visit and celebration are in the hands of the trade extension committee, consisting of the following:

D. J. Graves, chairman; Charles L. Smith, vice chairman; J. Barnhart, D. B. G. C. Daniels, J. A. Jackson, B. A. Forrester, A. F. Gimbal, Geo. Hammer, M. M. Hoffman, L. W. Jackson, E. H. J. K. Wire Poison Cure to Save Woman

Formula Telegraphed to S. F. From Cincinnati

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—A chemical formula, sent across the continent last night by telegraph, may save the life of the wife of a prominent railway official who, taking poison, is lying at death's door. The formula is for an antidote, only discovered a few days ago by Dr. J. H. Wilms of Cincinnati, and was sent last night on the appeal of a railroad official, whose name the telegraph companies are withholding.

According to the telegraph company, the message of appeal was sent Health Officer Landis of Cincinnati, who turned it over to Dr. Wilms. The formula came back over the wire last night. The antidote, calcium sulphide, is for bichloride poisoning, and is declared to be the first effective reagent against the mercuric poison ever discovered.

GERMANY APOLOGIZES. BERN, April 29.—The German minister, by special instruction of Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg, has called at the Swiss state department and expressed deepest regret for the violation of Swiss territory by a German aeroplane on Wednesday. The minister stated that the aviator had been dismissed from the aviation corps and that all flying in the region adjacent to the frontier had been forbidden.

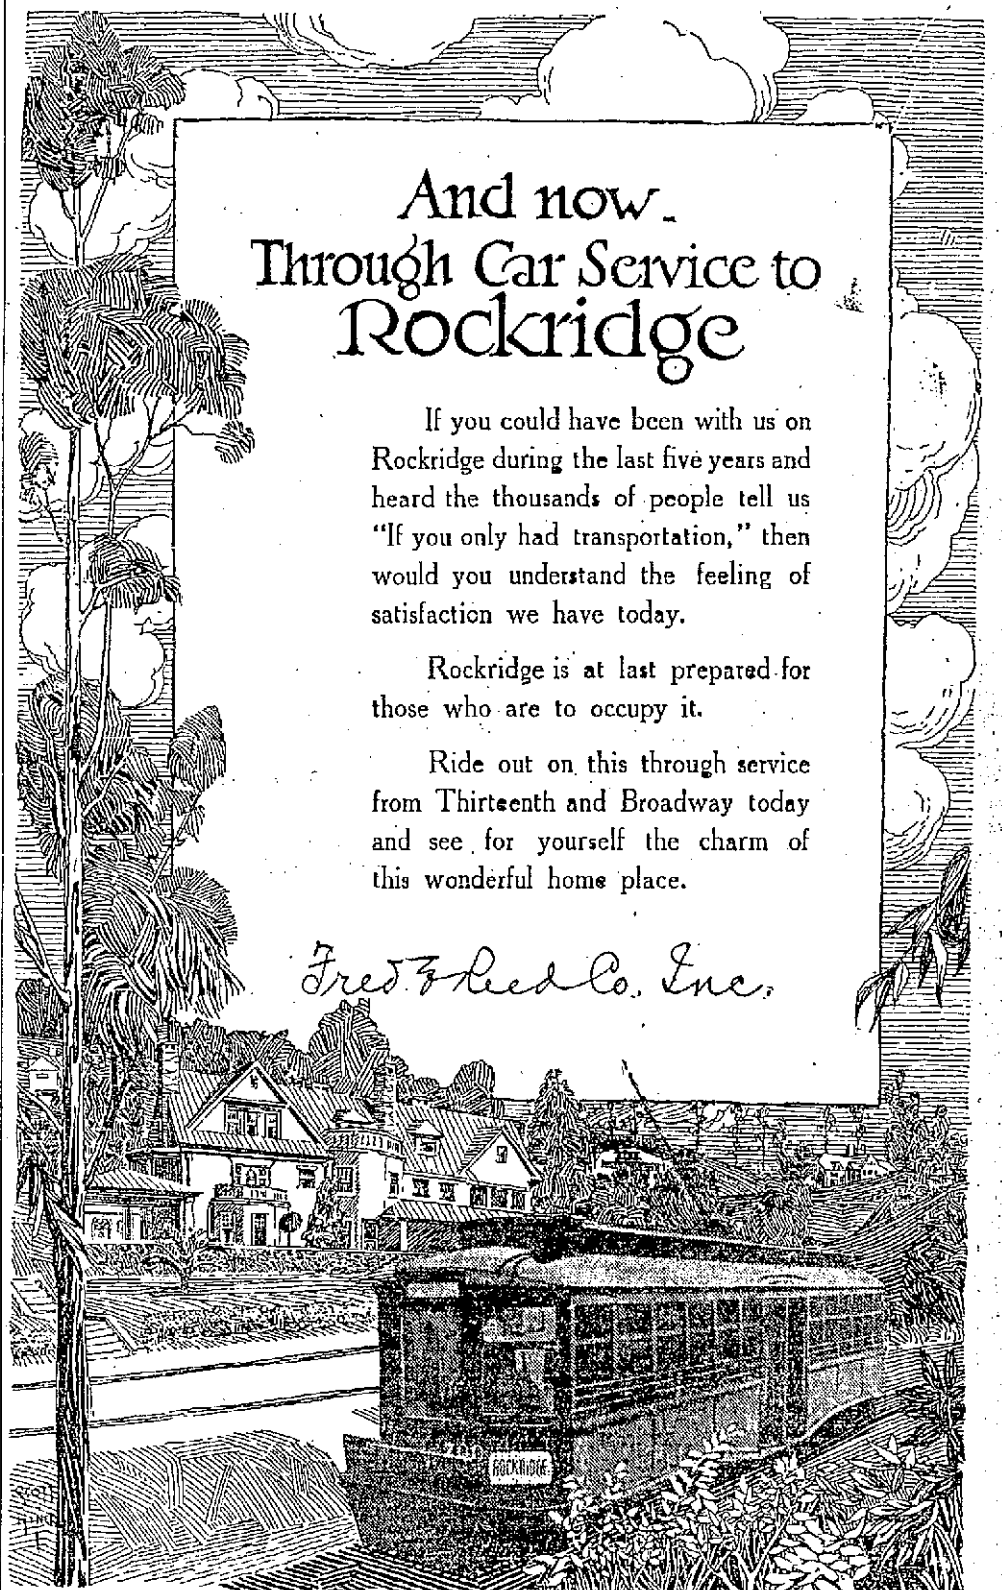

SCHOOL WORK IS SUBJECT OF CENTER

Educational Topics Are Considered by Club Women.

School affairs, plans for improvements in the work of the schools and other educational topics were considered at the meeting of the Oakland Center of the California Civic League, held yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Oakland. Miss Annie Florence Brown of the Board of Education, A. C. Barker, superintendent of schools, C. E. Keyes, principal of the Oakland High School, and Mrs. Margaret Schallerberger McNaught were the speakers. Miss Ethel Moore of the playground commission presided at the meeting.

Mrs. S. C. Dorland urged that more definite pledges be asked from the national parties regarding the suffrage issue.

Miss Brown spoke of the work of the Chabot Observatory, declaring that it was moved from its old location on account of hindrance to work through the lights of the city. The present site in Leona Heights, she declared, would serve for the observatory indefinitely. Principal Keyes told of the work of the high schools of Oakland, of the new courses being taught, of student activities and other subjects.

The Meddler

IT WAS a rose-colored tournament. No one had suggested a uniform, but rose silk coats and rose hats were thick on the links of the Claremont Country Club for the golf games yesterday afternoon.

One could refer to the gay spirit of the tournament and remark that the day was altogether couleur de rose. But one refrains. Still, it was.

The golf enthusiasts, and the idle "tralliers," and those who only knit (or bridge), and wait, were there, and a score of stars from across the bay played their keenest for the silver cups.

Luncheon on the roof garden was a merry party, with the sun filtering through trellises and awnings, and the fountain filled with roses. This was a new effect, and quite lovely. The heavy blossoms of La France roses, cut close, floated lazily in the cool water, which is a why they have done in fountains in the east this year.

At diners and luncheons those low Florentine marble basins are filled with pansies or daffodils without stems. It has an ancient Roman touch about it. They used to ruthlessly decapitate flowers in this fashion for Nero's banquets. Nero was really the "perfect host."

There were 200 at luncheon. The visiting players were guests of the Claremont Club, and found their places in congenial groups at small tables. Mrs. Harry H. Sherwood, as captain of the Claremont women's team, acting as an unofficial hostess. She, by the way, wore white and rose color.

The golf stars were, of course, the center of interest. They were Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Charles Wingate, Mrs. Dennis Searles, Miss Marie Tyson, Mrs. J. D. Grissim, Mrs. Frank Avery, Mrs. W. R. Briggs, Mrs. E. B. Patterson, Mrs. Clinton Walker, Miss Elsie Everson, Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Mrs. Gardner Perry Pond, Mrs. M. R. Sherwood, Mrs. A. H. Griswold, and from across the bay, Mrs. A. R. Pommer, Miss Sadie Derrham, Mrs. George Armsby, Mrs. C. F. Ford, Mrs. Winfield Davis, Mrs. Paul Danforth, Mrs. Adolph Gautenlaub, Mrs. Cleveland Forbes, Mrs. Edward Smith, Miss Shalwald, Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. Gus Taylor, Mrs. Douglas Grant and Mrs. Fred McNear.

MRS. MEIN'S COOK AT BELGIAN MARKET.

There is a Chinese cook in Mrs. Thomas Mein's household who makes wonderful doughnuts. Really beautiful doughnuts of a clear golden brown color and a delectableness unrivaled. Mrs. Mein's friends have had them for tea.

The point of this is, that Mrs. Mein is to send "Sins" to the Belgian market in City Hall Park next Saturday when he will cook doughnuts all day, to sell, of course, for the gastronomic enlightenment of the public and the benefit of the Belgians. Mrs. Mein couldn't have conceived a keener contribution.

Other gastronomic contributions will include 1000 cakes, all home-made. A great many cakes. But there will be more than 1000 demands for them. Mrs. Wickham Havens and Mrs. Willard Williamson are collecting them.

Mrs. Frank Proctor's clothes booth will be like that Mrs. Carolan presided over in the San Francisco market. It was the success of the fête with Paris gowns from the wardrobes of Burlingame for sale for a song.

Mrs. Proctor is gathering sports and summer hats for her "hand-me-down" display, and these will not be handed down but quite new. They are being painted by artists and will be catholic, smart, down to the minute and persuasively inexpensive.

Lemons from Mrs. Vista will be sold in bright colored trolley bags at Mrs. William Griffith Henshaw's booth. Mrs. Henshaw is having a carload sent up from her place at Montecito. Mrs. Edson Adams is sending potted plants and will direct their sale, and Mrs. Horatio Bonestell will have the flower booth beneath a floral sunshade like a great bouquet. These are only a few of the details of a fête that will be far and away the most picturesque and interesting affair given for charity this year.

SPORTS COSTUMES AT SMART BRIDGE PARTY.

On Thursday everyone played bridge for the benefit of the Woman's Exchange, and the most noticeable thing about the party at the Hotel Oakland was the number of women in sports costumes. It was a decidedly pleasant informal party, and afterward tea in the lounge was gay and informal, partly because there were so many pretty, informal costumes.

Mrs. Charles Tripler Hutchinson wore one of white and rose Italian silk with a rose hat and also in white and rose Italian silk was Mrs. Percy Murdock who is more attractive in sports clothes than in a ball gown—or it may be the other way.

Mrs. William Ede had a "peach" of a biscuit colored cloth outfit soft with hat to match that had a brown leather crown, and looked awfully well.

Mrs. William Letts Oliver who did so much for the success of the party, took tickets in a smart black taffeta costume, and Mrs. Sharon was very busy with details of some sort, looking very well in blue and light tan silk with a hat to match.

Mrs. L. B. Everts and Miss Flor-Inne Brown distributed the bright ribbon tray prizes, Miss Brown in the only futurist costume of the afternoon a white and black satin skirt with bodice of Georgette.

The candy girls were pictures, most of them in pink. Miss Frances DuVal wore pink taffeta with sheer chiffon sleeves and a pink hat, Miss Margaret Breedlove in pale blue, Miss Ruth Clark in pink, and Miss Helen Hawley in pink were among them.

MORGAN-PENNOYER ENGAGEMENT NEWS.

Oakland friends have received news of the Morgan-Pennoyer engagement announced last week in New York, and still the most interesting engagement in society.

The news was first told at the home of Miss Anne Morgan, aunt of Pennoyer's fiancée, at her home in Madison avenue on Wednesday of last week when a rehearsal of a Shakespearean pageant took place. The pageant is to be part of the Shakespeare ball to be given on the evenings of May 6 and 8, and forty or fifty of the younger set are to take part in it. They are all friends of Miss Frances Morgan, and quite unsuspectingly gathered for the rehearsal at which the news of her engagement surprised them.

"Paul Pennoyer was an usher at the marriage of Julius Morgan and Miss Louise Converse in Boston last June, and the romance began then, although the young people had known each other a year before. Miss Morgan made her debut last winter and is very popular.

Sheldon Pennoyer, who is a student at the Philadelphia art academy, went up to New York for the announcement and joined the family party at the Morgan home where Mrs. Pennoyer is a guest. There is still no date named for the wedding.

COALS TO NEWCASTLE ON FLOWER DAY.

The ferry building in San Francisco was a flower market on Wednesday. It was Flower Day in San Francisco and over 100 society matrons and belles sold blossoms for the Catholic Humane Bureau. At the ferry Mrs. Frank Griffin headed the company of vendors, who carried baskets among the crowds, and men and women rushing for boats stopped to buy. It was taking "coals to Newcastle" to bring half a dozen roses back to their Oakland and Berkeley gardens, but it was for charity.

Wherefore the usual order was reversed and boats crossing to this side of the bay were fragrant with flowers. Mrs. Griffin and her assistants were at the foot of Market street to meet the 7 o'clock boat Wednesday morning, and they remained until the evening rush was over.

Mrs. Fred Kohl headed a group in one of the hotels and the flower girls were stationed in all of the big office buildings to dispose of their wares. Mrs. Edward de Leavaga, who was Miss Woodbury of Oakland, was one of the successful flower girls in the downtown district.

MRS. PROCTOR'S TEAS IS FASHIONABLE CRUSH.

Mrs. Frank Proctor's tea on Wednesday was a "crush." The rooms of the Proctor home, which is the Frank Brown residence, leased for a year, are very large, but they were filled, and at 5 o'clock everyone was there. There were beautiful flowers, summer costumes, and much light conversation, to make up the usual delightful confusion of a tea.

Most of the women in the reception party wore white, as it happened, and Mrs. Proctor was very attractive in white lace, with her fair coloring. She has an iridescent sort of charm, and in the white and silver gown she wore at the Fashion Show and later added to her wardrobe, is rather a fairy-like figure.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Proctor had forty-five guests for dinner and dancing later. There were four tables, one presided over by the hostess and another by Mrs. Chickering. Afterward there was dancing until after midnight. The Charles Keeney, Percy Murdock, Wickham Havens, Willard William-

HOUSE-WARMING IN NEW PIEDMONT HOME.

The pretty new home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huntington in Wildwood avenue, Piedmont, was thrown open for a house-warming last Saturday evening. It was a small affair for a group of intimate friends, but the house was filled with flowers and en fête for its first party.

Some of the guests were Miss Dorothy Doo of San Francisco, Miss Mildred Mallon of Alameda, Miss Phyllis Kent, Miss Charlotte Cockcroft, Leslie Taylor, William Bryan, Dr. Weaver, J. C. Carlton and Edith Anderson, a visitor from Peru.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntington were married in Seattle last year. Mrs. Huntington was Miss Helen Mattise, and her father is one of the prominent financiers of the northern city. She is a Mills College girl, and was considered the beauty of her class at college.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Huntington are also occupying a new home, recently built at their summer place in Sonoma.

EFFECTIVE GOWNS AT WEDDING OF THE WEEK.

The "something blue" that all brides wear was in the gleaming sapphires of a jeweled pendant Mrs. William Powell (Ethel Wrampelmeier), wore at her wedding in Berkeley Tuesday evening. The lavalliere was of diamonds and sapphires, a gift of the groom, and the only jewel the bride wore. It was a very brilliant touch of blue.

Mrs. Powell's wedding gown was the most shimmering exquisite affair, and for the credit of Oakland it was made here though everyone supposed it came from Fifth Avenue at least. It was rather indescribable, of silver lace veiled with sheer tulle, and a gleaming tracery of pearls over the tulle. It was short and bouffant, and the long court train was of sheer silver lace. Over it all was the tulle bridal veil.

The bridesmaids, too, wore veils, short streamers of tulle fastened to their close collars. Their gowns were quaintly pretty with the frayed silk ruffles that grandmothers wore on their taffeta gowns. Miss Esther Merrill who was maid of honor, was in pink, the hooped skirt trimmed with the light frayed ruffles, and she carried the bright pink Killarney roses. Miss Merrill caught the bride's bouquet later, a proper omen, as she is to be a summer bride. The bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Slate, Miss Mary Gayley, Miss Alice Snook, and Miss

Joy Wilson, were in blue taffeta with bodices of silver lace. They carried American beauty roses.

For the reception, the Wrampelmeier home in Piedmont avenue was filled with roses. At supper the bride's table was a mass of Duchessa roses with ribbons shading from cream white to pink. Miss Joy Wilson found the ring in the bride's cake, and Henry Wrampelmeier cut the thimble for prosperity.

Mrs. Wrampelmeier wore a stunning gown, of old French blue silk covered with jetted black net and with a Parisian touch in the corsage knot of roses. Mr. and Mrs. Powell are motoring in the south in a new touring car that was one of their wedding gifts.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER WITH SCATTERED COURSES.

Guests at a dinner in Berkeley last evening enjoyed hors d'oeuvres at Mrs. Arthur Nahl's home in College avenue, and remained for soup. Then, they drove to the William Olney's residence and ate an entree. It was an excellent entree, but a brief space and they were on their way to the salad served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glass. Afterward dessert at the Ralph Phelps' and then the charity ball at the Twentieth Century Club where they remained the rest of the evening.

They were a gay party who included with the others, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fletcher, Professor and Mrs. A. O. Leuschner and Harold Drayton.

The ball was for the benefit of the Berkeley Dispensary and was a huge success. Mrs. Henry Martinez had planned it and the Berkeley set turned out for it. Professor and Mrs. Charles Mills Gayley gave a dinner before it and Mrs. Cline Bull had guests at dinner, going later to the ball. Miss Mary Gayley, Miss Dorothy Woodworth, Miss Marjorie Slate and Miss Elizabeth Page were among the younger belles of the ball.

JIMMIE WILDER A VISITOR OF THE WEEK.

The refreshing personality of "Jimmie" Wilder gladdened his California friends this week. He arrived from a visit to Honolulu on Tuesday and left a day or two later to join Mrs. Wilder in New York. She was Sally Harnden of Alameda before her marriage a number of years ago to one of the Honolulu Wilders which is equivalent to saying one of the Philadelphia Cadwalladers. The Wilders are regarded as part of the social system in Honolulu, just as the Cadwalladers are in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Wilder is a sister of Dr. F. W. Harnden of Berkeley, and another brother, Robert Harnden, who married Miss Phoebe Binney of Berkeley, lives in London.

The Wilders have lived in many places. When war was declared their home was in Paris where their parties were famous. Jimmie Wilder is a most delightful person. He was one of the most popular men ever graduated from Harvard, and nowadays his bon mots are quoted from Honolulu to London.

In New York the Wilders are prominent in the literary and artistic set and give interesting teas.

Wilder is to join the citizens' camp at Plattsburg, New York, in July, and Mrs. Wilder and their children will be at Plattsburg for the summer.

MISS TORREY'S ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED THREE TIMES.

Miss Dorothea Torrey's engagement to Harold Rannels Kelly was very thoroughly announced. First at Miss Helen Goodall's luncheon at the Claremont Country Club on Wednesday to an intimate group of girl friends; then at a dinner at the "Theta" house in Berkeley where Miss Torrey's sorority sisters were told the news, and finally on Thursday at the tea Mrs. Frederic Torrey gave for her mother, Mrs. L. A. Bailey. This time society in general learned the news, and with all the preliminary light excitement, society in general had not guessed it.

Mrs. Torrey gives a tea every year on her mother's birthday, and this year her daughter's betrothal added interest to the party. The Torrey home in the Canyon road was filled with white hawthorne and roses for the tea, and some of the younger girls assisted in receiving.

Decorations at Miss Goodall's luncheon on Wednesday were of pink moss roses, and the hostess and guests were an especially pretty group of girls in light summer costumes. Miss Goodall wore a fetching white silk smock suit and a sports hat, and Miss Torrey who is a beauty and of whom Sandona has made a very lovely portrait, was in a white net frock with a white picture hat.

The announcement was made in betrothal cards to which were tied sprays of orange blossoms, at each place. Some of the guests were Miss Elinor Earl, Miss Katherine Crellin, Miss Suzanne Greenwood, Miss Dorothy Eddinger, and Miss Eleanor Banning of Los Angeles.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT CROSBY HOME.

Members of the very young set were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Crosby this afternoon when Daniel Crosby, Jr., celebrated his fifteenth birthday, and little Miss Virginia Crosby whose birthday happens in May, celebrated hers in advance. She is a very attractive small girl who assisted Mrs. Crosby to receive the guests with a charming dignity and savoir faire. Miss Elsie Marwedel also assisted in entertaining the party that included 60 of the juvenile smart set.

The rooms of the Crosby home were cleared for dancing, and since the living room, hall, library and dining room open into one another with broad doorways there was a lot of space for dancing. Tea at 3 was

Social Favorite Policeman's Bride; Says He Resembled Father

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Drawn to William Liebscher, a policeman attached to the Mission street police station, as the type of man whose traits of character most closely resembled those of his father, the late Major John H. Whitley, U. S. A., Miss Alberta Whitley, 2239 Sacramento street, today will wed her father's son.

Miss Whitley, whose mother is now the wife of Colonel Alfred Reynolds, U. S. A., and who was a society favorite in this city three years ago just before her father was ordered to Honolulu. He died suddenly, shortly after his arrival there.

Miss Whitley returned to San Francisco and took up her residence with her mother. It was while attending the school of nursing that Miss Whitley met Liebscher. The couple were married today in the St. Luke's Lutheran church by Rev. William R. Swickard. A honeymoon to Yosemite for two weeks will follow, after which the couple will return to San Francisco to make their home.

SOCIETY FAVORITE HERE. Mrs. Whitley always has been a favorite with Mrs. Eleanor Martin of 2440 Broadway. Mrs. Martin frequently visited Miss Whitley when the latter was attending the school of nursing at the St. Luke's Lutheran church.

It was when Miss Whitley's mother was married to Colonel Reynolds that the bride took up a course of nursing.

RAY CRUISES LEAD TO ROMANCE IN ARMY. SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—Abetted by numerous bay cruises on the government boats, the General McCallister and the General Slocum, Capt. brought a romantic alliance that came as a surprise to the service at Thursday, when the General Slocum was ordered to San Francisco and the General McCallister was ordered to San Francisco.

GADIS' BEDTIME STORY

By HONOR D. CADY

One day Uncle Wiggily Longears, the bunny uncle, started for a walk through the woods, thinking, perhaps, he might meet with an adventure, such as having a little mouse pull his tail, or the scilicet, scary alligator try to tickle him with a lollypop stick.

But when Mr. Longears had hopped along for some time on his red, white and blue striped rump, and nothing had happened, he said, out loud:

"I am afraid I shall have no adventure today, which is too bad, for I have not just then. If you will kindly believe me, as I hope you always do, the bunny uncle heard a voice saying:

"But I don't want to go to the store

I want to stay home with the other boys. I don't want to go to the store

"I know it isn't Sammie," spoke another voice, "but I have not one else to send, and I should think you would like to go."

"Well, I love you, mother, of course, but I really don't want to go," was what

Uncle Wiggily heard next, and then the

COAST LEAGUE HOLDS HONOR OF DIGGING UP SHORTSTOPPERS

Fourteen Short-field Men Sent to Upper Realm by Coast League Leaders

Producing high class shortstops and shipping them to the major leagues is one of our leading industries. Some years we send more than others, but it is a mighty dull season when at least one full-fledged, self-starting shortstop is not created and shipped east.

The coast probably has contributed more stars in this position to the major leagues than any other part of the country.

REED STARRING FOR DENVER CLUB

Milton Reed, the infielder who caused the McCredies a lot of worry and trouble last year, is playing second base for Reed. It will be remembered, was turned over to Portland last spring, along with Herb Murphy. In part payment for the use of Barfoot, he refused to be jumped to the Brooklyn Dodgers and was playing with them until forced by the Philadelphia management to quit, as he had accepted advance money and failed to appear.

Reed then came to Portland under protest and after playing a few games, was laid up for several weeks with a bad cold. His manager, who was Edward Reed, was released, but was given a trial by Oakland, which was shy of infielders. He didn't last long there and was released. He then came to Portland and happened to get with Denver its unknown, but his name is appearing in the box scores regularly, and he seems

RALPH WORKS

Ralph Works; veteran Detroit pitcher, given a short try-out with the Angels, is attempting to get on with the Oakland club. It is probable that Rowdy Elliott will give him a chance, despite the apparent strength of the Oakland slab corps.

Works and Elliott are old friends, as they were the battery for the "Bloomer Girls" a good many years ago.

DREW MAKES NEW RECORD.

Drew of Los Angeles, established a new world's indoor record for ninety yards in Brooklyn last night, covering the distance in nine seconds flat. The time was one-fifth of a second better than the former mark, established by Drew in 1914.

CITY FINANCE
TANGLE NEW CAUSE OF WOE"Kaufman Budget" Is Found to Be Too
Liberal*Hurried Consultation at City Hall Follows
Discovery

Consternation reigned at the city hall today when it was learned that the famous "Kaufman budget" was out 34 or 4 per cent, and that on the wrong side of the ledger. Every city department will have to cut down on its expenditures for the fiscal year 1915-1916 by the amount of the discrepancy between the actual figures and those posted in the budget appropriations.

A hasty conference was summoned in the chambers of Mayor John L. Davis today to learn whether all the departments would be able to meet the situation. The mayor had been notified by City Auditor I. H. Clay of the difficulty and called the council of war.

When the budget was adopted last year it was according to figures prepared in the mayor's office by George Kaufman, his adviser and a financial expert. As soon as the budget was fixed the appropriations were made to each department, and the heads of departments have had to handle their bookkeeping with the amount specified as a credit against which they could draw.

Many of the departments have contracted for expenditures running up to the limit of the "credits" in the budget. But the appropriations will all be 34 or 4 per cent low, and the expenditures must be cut down by this amount. The difference between what was credited to all departments and what they will get is about $75,400.

The mistake was made in the estimate of revenue to be received other than taxes, police court fines and forfeitures, receipts from licenses and from similar sources. Kaufman estimated that there would be a considerable increase in these. As a matter of fact, the police courts have fallen off in revenue, and the loss of revenue from Chinese lotteries is estimated at $100,000.

Many of the departments will suffer from the error, but it is anticipated that by borrowing and bargaining between departments it will be possible to bridge the difficulty.

DRUM COMMITTEE
EXTENDS TIMEBondholders Given Ample Opportunity for Withdrawals.

For the purpose of avoiding the suggestion that any haste had been employed in indorsing the Drum plan of reorganization approved by the State Railroad Commission, the Drum committee in charge of the affairs of the Peoples Water Company met yesterday afternoon in San Francisco and agreed to allow bond depositors ten days' time within which to withdraw from the present arrangements.

At the present time 93 per cent of the bonds have been pledged behind the Carleton and Drum committees and both committees have fully ratified the plan as now proposed. This has for its next immediate object the organization of the East Bay Water Company, a holding corporation through which the utility will be re-financed and reorganized.

The unit of non-consenting bondholders, represented by Attorney James P. Peck, controls something over a half million in bonds and must increase its holding by inducing withdrawal within the ten-day period before the approved plan can be seriously affected by any considerable amount of non-consenting bonds. The alignment between the consenting and non-consenting group is sharp and Peck has launched a vigorous campaign to increase his holdings. The Drum group declares his effort will evaporate within the time limit, while Peck insists that he has every assurance of success in his effort to checkmate Drum.

Woman Undertaker
Sued for Divorce

Lydia W. Payne, secretary of a local undertaking company, has been sued for divorce by her husband, William A. Payne, who alleges that she deserted him a year ago. The couple were married in 1901.

Mrs. Mary Nicholas Smith-Barnett, 36, has been granted an annulment of her marriage to Charles O. Selbit on the ground that she failed to obtain a final decree from her second husband when she married Selbit in October, 1912. Mrs. Selbit is a daughter of Mrs. Theresa Nicholas and lives at 4205 Penniman avenue.

Theresa Stark wants a divorce from Amelia Stark, alleging that she attacked him with a knife. Plaintiff is a tailor and lives at 4209 West street.

Pleas of not guilty were entered by the defendants to seven charges of selling Chinese lottery tickets when the cases were called in the local courts today. The cases were continued for trial.

A dozen men arrested for "visiting a lottery house" pleaded guilty. Each was fined $5. The Chinese lottery house proprietors paid the fines for their patrons.

The arrests were made last night by a posse under the direction of Lieutenant Hemphill. Bail amounting to $2380 was collected for the release of the prisoners. The raids were at 630 Eighth street and 1258 Seventh street.

"Chinese lotteries have been running right along," said Chief of Police Woods. "We have been making the strongest possible effort to stamp out this insidious form of gambling, and we still hope to do so. But it seems almost impossible to get it."

It was not until the blacked their faces and disguised themselves as negroes that my men were able to gain entrance to the place and purchase tickets.

"They have the most elaborate methods of indirection in selling tickets. They know their patrons. They take few chances of arrest."

Convicted S. F. Slayer
Goes Free 11 Years

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Inquiry into the Tortolero murder case yesterday developed the fact that Angelo Napoli, sentenced to seventeen years in San Quentin for slaying James Blagard at Day and Mason streets in 1905, has never served a day in the penitentiary.

Investigation disclosed that Napoli, with four others, killed Blagard in a room and then fled. Napoli later appeared on the scene and acted as interpreter during a subsequent investigation before it became known that he was suspected of the homicide.

District Attorney Fickert announced that he will send to New Orleans for Mrs. Marie Tortolero, wife of the alleged slayer, and her brother. Through them the police hope to establish that Gelfene and Tortolero are one and the same.

Karl Blonschinkel, handwriting expert, said exemplars of the handwriting of Gelfene and that of Tortolero taken eleven years ago are identical.

Case Laid Over Until Monday; Woman
on Stand

OROVILLE, April 23.—Adjournment of the second Slaughter trial until Monday, coupled with the fact that rumors have been circulated that the sermon delivered during the first trial may be considered in the light of evidence, has turned the interest of all here to the minister's probable actions tomorrow. In face of the probability that his words in church will be used, members of his congregation and others are asking, will he dare once more openly to review the case? It is not thought that he will.

The first witness called in the second hearing was Mrs. Thomas Whidden.

The story unfolded by her was even more complete than on the first trial. She told of the arrangements where Gertrude Lamson, who was caring for her, was to sleep in the Slaughter home upon the evenings when her husband was at home. She stated that she had seen Gertrude on the night when Gertrude Lamson told of being at the Slaughter home the girl had left her home to sleep in the Slaughter residence.

STOOD BY STORY.

Mrs. Whidden also testified of the visit that the pastor and the girl had made to her home when the girl had come to her for help. She stated that Gertrude was crying, and she said that she was sorry that she had told her mother. I had told her to tell her story to her mother. The defendant, she stated, had left her home, and she said that she would leave the matter with Gertrude and her mother.

Much of the testimony yesterday centered about the almond orchard incidents. Mrs. Whidden told of prolonged absences of the pastor and the girl when they went for almonds, and she said that the pastor had gone into his home with Gertrude, leaving the others huddling almonds in the garage.

ONCE, ON STAND.

"Once Gertrude had said that she wanted a drink," said the witness, "and Slaughter said that he would go in and get some stomach medicine. Another time when she went into the house he said that he would go in and prepare his sermon."

According to the girl's story, she was mistreated twice in the Slaughter home during the week that she worked there.

The case went over until Monday, with Mrs. Whidden still on the stand. The personnel of the jury is as follows:

John Flinnig, Gridley, age 42, creamery owner; Daniel Zink, Henry Creek, age 35, rancher; J. F. Hollingsworth, Chico, age 35, rancher; Joseph Darnell, Oroville, age 44, salesman; W. C. Lewis, Chico, age 55, real estate dealer; J. W. Gibson, Oroville, age 56, designer; Ira D. Wilson, Oroville, age 48, carpenter; W. D. Risner, Oroville, age 55, merchant; T. R. Holt, Gridley, age 28, cobbler; Frank Dams, Gridley, age 28, cobbler; W. S. Brown, Oroville, age 32, car inspector; H. G. Paul, Chico, age 25, barber.

Clowns Are Serious,
Declares Press Agent

Elbert Hubbard once wrote, "Men whose souls are corroding with care-weighted down with sorrow too great for speech—are often those who set the table in a roar."

It is a fact that the circus clown is often a very serious-minded individual, as is informed by the press agent of John Robinson's Ten Big Shows, which will appear in Oakland Monday and Tuesday afternoon and evening, May 3 and 4.

The press agent says that he has talked with every one of the 61 clowns and that he finds that only one of them is a clown when he has his "make-up" removed, and then he is just naturally a comedian," says the press agent.

GIRL'S DEATH CHARGED TO
MAN'S THREAT*Companion Declares S.
F. Policeman Drove
Her to Suicide*"Hounded," Accusation of Ex-Soldier Who Sought Hand

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Searching for a clue to the mystery of the shooting of a woman whose real name is said to be Goldie Wilson, of Lemoore, California, the police were bidden this morning to look within their own ranks. Robert Brown, a discharged soldier and companion of the dead woman, held in custody at the city prison, declared himself prepared to furnish the number of a patrolman who had hounded her and the woman who, he declares, became infatuated with her and told him that he had better be on his way and seek other quarters.

Miss Wilson, who was but 19 years old, and was generally known as Sarah F. Brown, was found dead in a room at the Fenton hotel, 259 Seventh street, shortly after 8 o'clock last night. Immediately thereafter Brown was seen to hurry from the place by Charles J. Connelley, the night clerk, to whom he cried, "My wife has killed herself."

A mysterious phone call to the Central Emergency Hospital and two visits on the part of Brown to the morgue, during both of which he strangely attracted the suspicion of Deputy Chief of Police Connelley and he was arrested and held incommunicado.

FRIGHTENED OF POLICE.

This morning Brown was inclined to unburden himself and declared that not only was he frightened of the police but that the officer who had taken a fancy to the woman he hoped to make his wife had so terrorized her as to lead her to take her own life.

"My true name is Robert Brown, and my home is in Pittsburg," he said. "I left the army in July, 1914. Since that time I have been employed in large hotels, including the Peninsula at San Mateo and the Cliff hotel. I have always known this girl as Goldie Wilson. She is a farmer's daughter and comes from Lemoore. I have known her about seven months and we have been living at the Fenton hotel for three weeks. Finally Miss Wilson met a policeman. He said, 'I have a wife and I am going to do it. I don't know just what to do, but when he repeated his demand I rented a room at 2396 Sixteenth street. I was going to take her with me. Afterward I thought I would have her to do it. I told her to go to the room last night. I had a bottle of beer with me. I had packed up my grip and I told her that I thought I would better beat it. She was in bed. I am not going to let that policeman slip anything over my head. I told her to go to the room on my way. Well, he got up to slip anything over me the other way, she replied as she drew my revolver from under her pillow and shot herself. I was so excited I didn't know what I did after that. I had put the grip in my grip when I packed it and she must have seen it out while I was getting the room."

EXPECTED TO MARRY.

"I have the number of that policeman and I am going to give it to the district attorney."

"I wanted to marry Miss Wilson when I got money enough."

The couple were known at the hotel as J. J. Darnell and wife. The police will hold Brown until an autopsy is held and a further investigation made. Meantime an effort is being made to communicate with the girl's family.

Detectives Gallagher and Jackson were assigned to the case by Captain J. D. DeLoach this morning. Captain Shon said that he believed the woman may have been murdered and that he would not release Brown until the matter had been thoroughly gone into.

Ordered Deported,
Wong Will Contest

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Declaring that he is a merchant prince with a number of stores in this country and in China, Wong Hing Chung, alleged gambler ordered deported, applied to the Federal court today for a reduction of his $10,000 bond to $5,000.

Chung was already on board the ship when his son, Wang Gung, died at the Central emergency hospital, the victim of a stabbing affray. The father was allowed to attend the funeral and then returned to the ship.

Attorney Frank H. Boland told Judge DeLoach that Wong was the victim of a commercial conspiracy, hatched by his business rivals, and that he had not been the proprietor of a gambling resort in China, as was alleged against him. The further hearing of the case was continued.

Ex-Sheriff's Wife
Now After Bondsman

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Mrs. Mary Eggers, wife of Fred Eggers, justice of the peace, brought suit in the Superior court today against her bondsman in an effort to recover $350 which she alleges he refuses to pay her. Judge Sturtevant affirmed a judgment of the lower court against Eggers for the money due on a separate maintenance contract and as the defendant refused to pay Mrs. Eggers is attempting to recover from his sureties.

HISTORIAN IS HOST.

Professor Henry Morse Stephens of the University of California was the host of the historical societies of the various classes, composed of students in the various classes, at his department. Informal discussions of historical subjects were held during the dinner, which was informal. The affair was held at Hotel Oakland.

Villa Located!
He Is Everywhere*Sleuths Find Mexican
Many Times a Day

Hist! Villa is in Oakland!
This is the word that has come in telephone messages to The TRIBUNE. He is also in Berkeley, Alameda, Hayward, Los Angeles, Fresno and Sanger!

Villa is everywhere!
The mysterious telephone messages have said it!
And still the government insists that he is in Mexico!

He was heard of at Martinez. A falcon-eyed sleuth had deputy sheriffs waiting to arrest his agents, built on a dark plot against the Hercules Powder Works. But the agents came not—and the sleuth was "bounced" from the sheriff's service. Attorney John W. Preston, to lay the facts before him.

This is a deep and dark tale. "Hobo Charley" gave the sleuth this clue. He told of the mysterious Villa, a Mexican, with a Mexican father and a German mother, who was going to wreck the Hercules plant and blame it on to Consul Bopp. Two agents were supposed then to be on their way to Martinez.

OTHER LETTERS!
All this was told the district attorney at Martinez by J. P. Emerson, of Stockton labor trouble fame. Emerson showed expert letters, and was very much in earnest. So deputy sheriffs were placed on the watch.

No job for Emerson.
In the meantime mysterious rumors have filled Oakland. One telephone call to The TRIBUNE office declared that Villa was in Oakland, and had even been seen in an automobile with Chief of Police Woods. Woods smiles mysteriously.

IS EVERYWHERE.

Another telephone call says that Villa is in Fresno, taking the Susac cure, and Los Angeles has also been mentioned as his mysterious hiding place.

The ubiquitous Villa seems to be everywhere at once except in Mexico. Vaudeville managers are now looking for him and the "mystery" is offering his weight in gold for a film of his "disappearing act."

Look out for him!
You may run against him any day! And in the meantime the Pinole powder plant and the Martinez sheriffs, and all the others in the Martinez case are waiting for the sleuth to knock him all except Emerson. He is going to make a federal affair out of it, he says, and even now is on Preston's trail.

CHILDREN IN FESTIVAL DO
BARD HONOR*Playground Celebration
Is Held at Lakeside
Park*Thousands in Costume
Imitate "Merrie England"

More than 4000 children and some adults are this afternoon doing homage to the memory of William Shakespeare by holding an immense Shakespearean celebration in Lakeside park and on the waters of Lake Merritt. This is probably the largest children's pageant ever given by school children in any city of the Pacific coast.

The celebration is a great vision of merry England of 300 years ago. Among the host of Lakeside park Robin Hood and his merry men are lounging or hunting, planning some new offense against their king, or plotting some new kindness for the unfortunate. Costumes of the period are a common thing. It takes little power of imagination to carry one back 300 years when viewing the pageant today.

Probably the prettiest feature of the celebration was enacted at the Elroy fountain early this afternoon. Here a pageant was held in which was presented by children of the elementary and high schools bits of Shakespearean plays—"As You Like It," "Winter's Tale," "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Merry Wives of Windsor," "Henry VIII," "Macbeth" and "Two Gentlemen of Verona," and "The Tempest."

The water carnival followed the pageant. Queen Elizabeth, with her retinue occupied sixteen decorated boats, which circled the lake waters two times, after which the party disembarked at the little grove-surrounded amphitheater which forms the park's musical grounds, where ukulele, choruses and glee club organizations greeted the party with an outburst of music. Paul Steindorff's municipal band played a program and Scotch pipers added the shrill of their pipes to the noise of celebration.

SOCIETY TO AID
BENEFIT FOR HOME

West Oakland Orphanage to

at Hotel.

Oakland society will tonight make merry at the Hotel Oakland at the West Oakland Home benefit ball to be given in the ivory ballroom for the benefit of the orphanage funds. The affair will be marked by several novel events during the evening. Miss Mina Gleason, Oakland actress, and one of the best known character stars on the coast, will entertain with dramatic readings, including the reading of a special sketch written for the occasion by Miss Mabel Gross Crane.

Mrs. E. J. Boyes is in charge of the general arrangements for the affair. The proceeds will go toward purchase of new equipment and to care for other needs at the home, the work of which has increased materially, and which is at the present time pressing need of funds to continue its operations properly.

Yachtsmen Urged to Build "War" Vessels

BOSTON, April 23.—Four submarine chasers, recently built under government supervision as a nucleus for a volunteer power boat squadron, were reviewed in a thick snowstorm today by Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant Secretary of the Navy. Roosevelt, who personally tested the speed and steadiness of the boats in a somewhat choppy sea, expressed his satisfaction at their showing and urged further work by the yachtmen of the country along similar lines.

"Many yachtmen," he said, "are building low and narrow power boats at a cost of $3000, when it would be just as easy to construct them of the type designed by the Navy Department for coast patrol boats, so that in case of war the department could use them to good advantage."

No Shoe Boxes for

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Shoe boxes, cans, hollow trees and the various other receptacles used as mail boxes on rural free delivery routes must all be discarded, according to notice promulgated by Jesse Roberts, superintendent of the Railway Mail Service for the district including California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona and Hawaii.

The home-made mail boxes must all be replaced with standard boxes built according to specifications to be published by the Postoffice Department.

Also being issued by Roberts has been an order for the district in which has been issued in other parts of the country and requires that two boxes must be nailed up where one grew before. A small box must be available for letters and a larger receptacle for parcel post packages.

HIGHER INSURANCE RATES DEFERRED

Santa Clara County Officers Promise Rigorous Arson Prosecution.

SAN JOSE, April 29.—Promising for the law officers of Santa Clara County that cases of arson would be prosecuted in the future more vigorously than in the past, the San Jose fire insurance agents secured a postponement yesterday of the threatened increase of 5 per cent in the rates until August 1.

The Los Angeles rates, however, are to continue at the average increase of 3 per cent, which was imposed by the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific after its arson committee had made an investigation of the conditions in the south in regard to the frequency of small fires.

Yesterday's meeting of the executive committee of the underwriters' with the San Jose agents followed the assertion from the underwriters that Santa Clara county rates would be increased as "the only weapon available to force prosecutions for the crime of arson."

"The agents promised us that they would not only use their own influence, but that they would also use the influence of the San Jose Association, the Rotary Club and other civic organizations would co-operate in cleaning up the misunderstanding in the attitude of the Mayor, Sheriff and District Attorney Arthur, in regard to arson cases, and practically guaranteed the proper prosecution of crime by the county officers," said Chairman George O. Headley of the executive committee. "Consequently we have postponed the increase until August 1."

PEACE FLAG PROPOSED. Yesterday morning there was pronounced agitation and speech in the city of Oakland in regard to the peace flag at each meeting, a suggestion having been made that the peace flag consist of a United States flag with a white border all around it. "It's not always possible to carry a peace flag around," objected Dr. Lou Harvey Clarke of Riverdale, "and I consider a United States flag better than any other."

In the midst of a storm of applause Mrs. C. B. Cumberston, chairman of the peace flag committee, rose to explain. "The international flag is greater than any flag," and was equally applauded. But Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, candidate for the general election presidency and who had been expected to do so, failed to speak in support of Mrs. Cumberston as she had been expected to do. Many others expressed themselves, but the motion failed to carry.

Another lively session followed the presentation of a resolution endorsing the work of the State Humane Bureau in promoting "their just and meritorious purposes." Mrs. Robert Burdette objected instantly, prefacing her speech by stating that she believed in kindness to all animals and human beings, but that she thought it most unwise to act without further scientific investigation. The resolution was finally tabled.

A resolution approving extension of humane economic teaching with an efficient force of instructors in every county was also passed.

STOCKTON, April 29.—With a jury chosen after examination of more than seventy veniremen, the trial of Mrs. W. C. Chambers, accused of conspiring with Charles Holman of Oakland to kill her husband, W. C. Chambers, will be held in the superior court here next week. The jury was completed last night, and today the preliminary hearing was started, before the court adjourned to reconvene on the case Monday.

The twelve men who will try Mrs. Chambers are: Thomas Rouke, F. A. Foley, A. H. Saxton, George Cooper, W. S. Lassell, Orrin S. Henderson, W. H. Priest, G. H. Howland, J. N. Adams, J. J. Capantich, W. E. Carver and J. T. Gibson.

Each of the jurors swore that he would have no scruples against returning a verdict calling for the death penalty for a woman, and all agreed that sex made no difference in the case. Mrs. Chambers, stylishly dressed, sat by her attorneys and smiled frequently. Charles Holman, who was arrested as her accomplice, was convicted and is now in San Quentin.

Mrs. Chambers was arrested when she acknowledged the authorship of a note found on the body of her husband. In the note the author requested Chambers to meet her at a lonely corner in this city at 2 a. m. Chambers was not seen alive after that meeting.

The prosecution expects to prove that Mrs. Chambers, Charles Holman, now waiting sentence for second degree murder, and Ray Miller, alleged to have confessed and held in jail for trial, entered into a murder conspiracy. Holman and Mrs. Chambers best decided to marry. It is contended, and killed Chambers to get him out of the way.

FORESTS AND WILD LIFE CHAMPIONED

Clubwomen Burlesque Own Pageant; 'Peace' Is Day's Theme

(By GENE BAKER)

DEL MONTE, April 29.—California women were urged today to preserve national forests and wild life, public health and "peace," by speakers at the State convention of Federated Women's Clubs, Mrs. James T. Hoxley pleaded for the forests and Mrs. Harriet Williams Myers of Los Angeles, head of the Audubon society, there, entreated for the protection of birds and animals.

To Dr. Adelaide Brown of San Francisco and Miss E. L. M. Fawn, director of the Bureau of the Tuberculosis for the State Board of Health was left the outlining of methods for preserving the public's physical welfare. What has been done in that regard by the federation's public health department was reported by Mrs. Robert Garner.

The subject of peace was scheduled for Dr. David Starr Jordan this afternoon and Mrs. Seward A. Simons of Los Angeles, who stirred up an argument for peace from general yesterday when she urged San Francisco and New Orleans as "the two worst cities in the United States" in regard to prostitution. Dr. Jordan was down to point out "One Way to Permanent Peace." Mrs. Simons' topic was "Preparedness for Peace; America's Danger and Opportunity."

NOT ENTIRELY PEACEABLE. However, peace was not entirely in evidence, as it was decided late yesterday morning that the tabling of the resolution endorsing enforcement in San Francisco of the red light abatement act had been illegal and the subject was again brought up today.

Harmon in another respect abided with the convention as with the bestowing of the vice-presidency upon Mrs. A. F. Jones of Oroville yesterday, one of the burning issues of the week had been settled. Mrs. Jones, who, according to the custom of the federation, was to be elected to a second term, had been opposed by Mrs. B. P. Walton of Sacramento, and until the count of the votes was completed late last night there was considerable curiosity in the city as to the result. The election, presented by the nominating committee went through as follows:

Mrs. Edward Dexter Knight of San Francisco, president; Mrs. L. B. Hogue of Ventura, vice-president at large; Mrs. A. R. McCullough of San Mateo, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Avery of San Francisco, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. G. Leonard of Oakland, treasurer; Mrs. Aaron Schloss, Berkeley; Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald of Fresno, auditor, and Mrs. A. J. Lawton of Santa Ana, federation secretary.

POWER SHOWS AMAZING EXHIBIT

Thousands of Visitors Attend Exposition of Surpassing Nature.

The thousands of visitors who have already attended the big Pacific Coast Motor Show, pronounced by visitors as the most complete exposition of the kind ever held on the Pacific Coast, and being held every afternoon and evening at the Oakland Auditorium, have been the "treasure trove" of the city. It is hard to say which is the greater attraction, the wonderful automobile exhibit in the Auditorium arena or the display of tractors, roads making machinery, motor boats and electrical products in the great arena, built especially for this show. Interpersed amid the hum of motors and engines is the splendid musical program given every afternoon and evening by the splendid array of artists secured for this exposition.

The question most frequently heard in "Have you heard the Motor Show?" This is the same question for the big exposition of the Motor Show. The show is the same as the Motor Show, and the same as the Motor Show. The show is the same as the Motor Show, and the same as the Motor Show.

MINE DISCOVERY OF WIERD ORIGIN

Siskiyou Copper Wealth Found After Tip to Poor Prospector.

SACRAMENTO, April 29.—The story of the discovery of Blue Ledge mine in Siskiyou county, as revealed today in the application of the St. Albans Mining Company for permission to sell stock for the further development of the mine, reads like a "movie" scenario.

"Twice back in 1900, the story relates, when a man from Crescent City, Cal.—a sort of prospector—was roaming the streets of San Francisco. He saw a sign: 'Spiritualist: Reads your past, present and future.' The prospector decided to take a chance.

The spiritualist told him where his fortune awaited him. She described in detail a mountainous bit of country which the prospector recognized as being located near Crescent City.

"High up in the mountains there is an eagle's nest," said the prophetess, "and directly under the eagle's nest is a mine of gold, copper and silver." She then told him how he would come in contact with a trapper who would direct him to the eagle's nest.

The prospector returned to Crescent City and subsequently came across the trapper. The eagle's nest was pointed out and blazed if there wasn't a mine underneath it. The prophetess was "off on only one detail" in the eagle's nest, of gold, copper and silver.

The prospector, after working the mine in a small way, sold his interest for $100 and later the St. Albans Mining Company secured possession.

Great Ball Tonight for Fine Arts Cause

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Tonight is the night of the biggest ball of the season, when at the California Building on the Exposition grounds, from 8:30 o'clock until dawn, gay crowds will revel on the scene of the fair. The occasion is the Fine Arts Ball, the object being the preservation of the Fine Arts Palace for future generations.

All night street car service will handle the crowds attending the monster affair, and bright costumes and special features will add to the attraction of the affair. Charles Templeton Crocker, Harold L. Mack and Thornton Mulhally, in charge of the arrangements, today completed every detail of the big celebration.

There will be four entrances open to the California building, two on the south, one on the east and one on the north side. The Fillmore street entrance to the grounds will be used.

DOROTHY GISH. Dorothy Gish in New Role at Franklin

Meena Bauer (Dorothy Gish), a little Dutch girl living with her father in a small Pennsylvania town, falls in love with the Count Von Ritz (Owen Moore), who is peddling clothes winners as a means of raising a gap in his finances. He suddenly receives remittances from home, and goes out of her life.

In course of time, Meena's father dies, leaving her everything he had, which is a considerable fortune, and taking this in a large telescope hat, Meena goes to live with her wealthy aunt in the city. At first her snobbish relatives are inclined to despise Meena, whose hatred of dirt impels her to scrub their brown-stained shoes, but learning that she has money, they fawn upon her.

It so happens that the Count Von Ritz is now coming to call upon Meena's cousin, and when he arrives he finds Meena, scrubbing brush in hand, on the steps. He naturally supposes she is the

PLAN FOR BAY BRIDGE EXAMINED

Representatives of Oakland and San Francisco Chambers in Conference

Plans for the construction of the proposed bridge across the San Francisco bay, as outlined by committees of the chambers of commerce about the bay several times, were examined in detail yesterday by representatives of the San Francisco and Oakland chambers. Harlan Miller, the engineer who designed the bridge to do away with the necessity of ferries, was present at the meeting, which was held in the Oakland chamber of commerce rooms. Owen G. Hotte presided.

As the result of the meeting two committees, one to look into the engineering features and one to examine the legal phases, were ordered appointed. At the meeting were present: W. H. Boulton of San Francisco; J. Jessup of Berkeley; J. H. Feinstein of Alameda; and Harlan D. Miller, the engineer, together with the chairman.

The plans, fully drawn, were gone over in detail, slow but sure, being examined and minute attention paid to the different engineering features and structural problem involved.

TO BECOME CITIZEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Because he preferred the plans submitted by the order of Jesuits to civil rights and status, Rev. Father Patrick Michael Laughran, Brother Conductor, S. J., at St. Ignace University, waited forty-seven years to apply for citizenship in the United States after having filed his declaration of intention July 12, 1869, in this city. The priest took oath in application for his final citizenship papers yesterday, with George J. Dougherty and Joseph Farry as witnesses.

And, also, seeking under his arm some books that he has brought for the daughter of the priest, he was seen in a large telescope hat. Meena goes to live with her wealthy aunt in the city. At first her snobbish relatives are inclined to despise Meena, whose hatred of dirt impels her to scrub their brown-stained shoes, but learning that she has money, they fawn upon her.

It so happens that the Count Von Ritz is now coming to call upon Meena's cousin, and when he arrives he finds Meena, scrubbing brush in hand, on the steps. He naturally supposes she is the

DRISK BOGE MARKET

Arrivals Heavier, But Demand for Fresh Fruit Much Better Than Usual.

A decidedly brisk business closed the week in the Oakland wholesale produce market this morning. Fresh fruit has been the feature all two week and in this the demand has been exceptionally good. Apples have been heavy on other side of the bay. Stocks in all lines are good and dealers report conditions much better than they have been for some time.

Arrivals of chest strawberries this morning amounted to about 700 crates. These sold according to quality. The Fresno article has not been good during the last few days, and prices are down to $1.25 to $1.85. Florin berries were on sale today at from 50 cents to $1.10 a crate.

Mexican tomatoes are plentiful in the market at $2.50 to $2.75 a box. Alligator pears brought $2.50 to $3 a dozen. Los Angeles cantaburgers are quoted at $1 to $1.25 a box of

REORGANIZATION PROMISED.

That the United Railroads of San Francisco will be reorganized and its enormous capitalization reduced is the latest statement of President Ellenthal. He says that he believes that a market is now being arranged for the securities on a sound financial basis. The basis of the plan includes reduction of bonded indebtedness, providing of new securities which will enhance the value of those now held and of a market through which orders may sell if they so desire at prices substantially larger.
